Dear Mr. Vito,

Thanks for all you have done for us, the Class of 1983. Your role has been an important one during our years at North Attleboro High School. You have encouraged us and given us the support needed to help achieve our goals. As a teacher, as class advisor, as friend, you are always ready to give of yourself.

For these reasons we, the Class of 1983, dedicate the Northern Light to you, Mr. David Vito.

All Aboard!

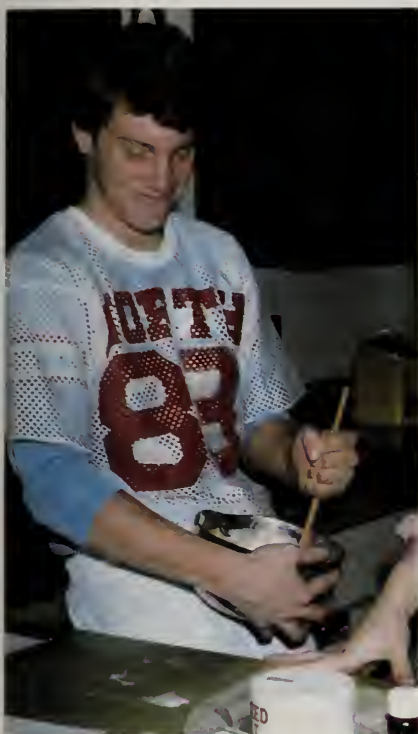

here are we going? Destination unknown—. We board the train with thoughts and dreams. We disembark with plans and ambitions that we hope to make reality.

Like a train with its variety of cars, North Attleboro High School is made up of different individuals, each unique in his style and function. The destination, though, is a common one—graduation.

The lessons we learn and the choices we make along the way are influenced by our "conductors". Faculty, counselors, parents, and friends all contribute to the growth that takes place during our high school years.

The Journey of Change

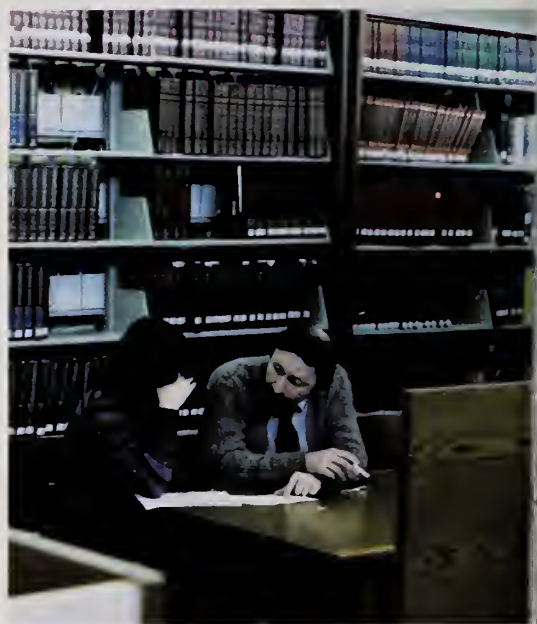

Though the four years we spend at NAHS pass so quickly, the journey which we began as freshmen, involves great growth and change.

As we travel through the final stage of our trip, we look back and marvel at the changes we have experienced. We have grown in many ways. As seniors we are more prepared to meet the world and the future.

Friends Along the Way

ave we made this trip alone? Teachers, administrators, and counselors have all accompanied us. Like the conductors on a train they have made the trip more comfortable.

Their knowledge and experience, their dedication to students and to teaching, their advice and their caring have all made the journey easier.

"Training"

Many of us at NAHS are involved in physical training. Under the guidance of our coaches we are challenged to obey the rules of good sportsmanship and to achieve on the field, the court, the diamond, the track.

Highlights of the Trip

This trip has not been non-stop. Rather, there have been many pauses. Each stop along the way, whether it be the athletic field, the dance floor, the stage, or any one of the extra-curricular activities NAHS offers, has helped us to grow both mentally and socially.

As we reach the end of our journey we look back with great appreciation on the highlights of our years at North High.

Last Stop— Change for the Future

So we reach the end of the NAHS Line. Where do we go now? It's time to choose a new track. Hopefully, our experiences here have prepared us to make the choices of the future.

We look ahead with the hope and optimism of youth. But the end of the line brings a note of sadness too. For we know that for us, life will never quite be the same.

UNDERCLASSMEN

An evening to remember

The members of the Junior Class gathered at the Kirkbrae Country Club in Lincoln, R.I. on April 21, 1983, for the annual Junior Prom.

As guests arrived at 7:00 p.m. they had their photographs taken. Following photographs a dinner of roast beef or chicken was enjoyed by the festive couples.

UVL provided the music for the evening. Queen Tracey Dean and her court danced to the theme song, "Just Between You and Me." It was an evening the Class of '84 will long remember.

JUNIORS

This year the Class of '84 was advised by Miss Linda Cooke and Mr. William Flannery, Jr.

Kacy Achin was elected president; Tracey Dean, vice-president; Paul Whitney, secretary; and Sue Burns served as treasurer.

Throughout the year class members were kept well informed of class activities by a monthly bulletin issued by the officers.

The year's activities included two successful car washes, the annual Powder-puff Game with the Junior Jets beating the Senior Sharks for the first time in seven years, and a Christmas Dance held on December 3rd.

In addition, the class added $900 to its treasury by selling candy at home basketball games.

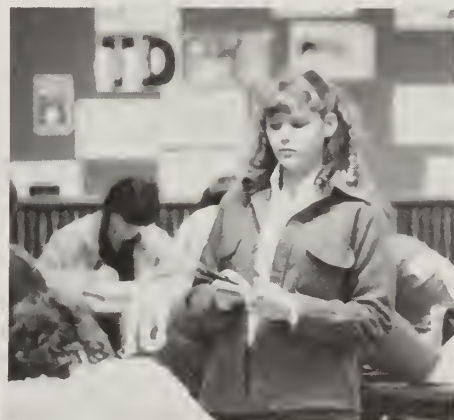

On April 21st the Junior Prom was held at the Kirkbrae Country Club in Lincoln. The theme of the evening was "Just Between You And Me" with music provided by UVL.

The final class activity of the year was the Junior Talent Show, held on the 13th of May. Although it was Friday the 13th, juniors did not experience any bad luck and the evening was a great success.

In all, due to a great deal of enthusiasm on the part of advisors, officers, and class members, the year was a very prosperous one.

The Class of 1986 elected Rick Patch as its first president, Liz Vaillancourt, vice-president; Chris Croteau, secretary and Andrea Spencer was chosen to handle the class treasury. Student council representatives were Sue Ala, Kathy Brunelle, and Karen Smith.

In order to begin building its treasury, the class collected dues and ran a car wash. The most exciting moment of the year came when the freshman float took second place in the Homecoming float competition. It looks like the Class of '86 has a bright future ahead.

JOINT INTEREST REVIVES NEWSPAPER

The revival of the school newspaper came about because of the joint interest of Ms. Carolyn Watchta and her Commercial Art classes who were looking for a creative outlet for their graphic art work. They worked together on redesigning the format for the defunct, "Freepress".

The name for the paper was the first and most difficult hurdle. In the running after much discussion were: the North Star and the North Spectator. A logo contest was undertaken by the commercial art classes that worked on images to depict both names. Finally, the North Star with its beam of light was chosen.

The staff slowly took shape with Chuck Farrell and Camille Nelson as co-editors. Thanks to a hard working staff the first edition was published just before Christmas. All the layout work was completed "camera ready" for the printers by the commercial art students. The staff was helped with typing by the business department and with the writing of some articles by the journalism classes.

Our second issue was published in April. It showed real improvement in both art work and writing. Advisor Carolyn Watchta looks forward to a stronger technical staff next year with a stable publication schedule.

TWENTY-FOUR STUDENTS TAKE PART IN MATH COMPETITION

NAHS students were given the opportunity this year to participate in the New England Math League, a group representing some 190 school systems which engage in monthly mathematical contests.

Each contest consists of six questions ranging in difficulty from Algebra through Pre-Calculus and lasts for 30 minutes. Each contest results in the selection of five team members whose scores are reported to the league for that month.

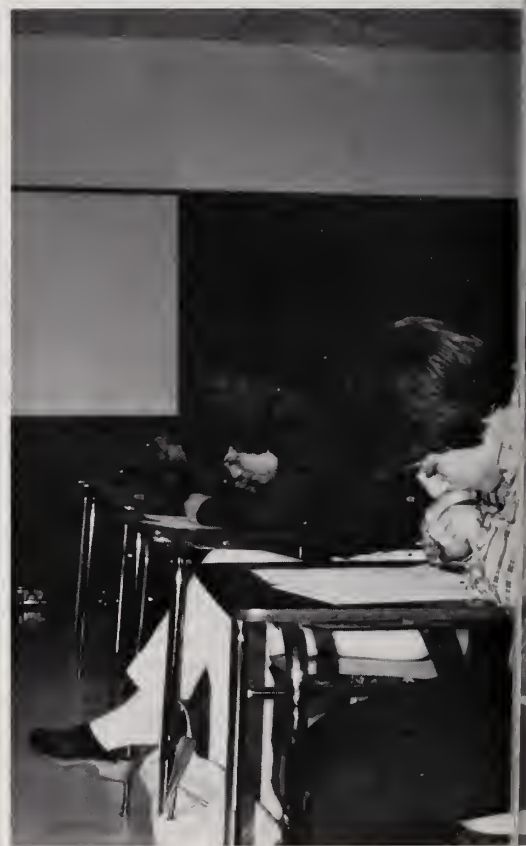

According to Advisor Mary Clark twenty four students took part in one or more of the competitions. The top scorers for North were: Steve Delfino, Brian Balut, Camille Nelson, Steve Alix, Dennis Colleran, Eric Hjerpe, Pete Blitchington, Lynne Alix, Chuck Farrell, and Chester Dobro.

Athletes not just on the playing field

The Girls' Athletic Association is a vital part of North's sports program. Each year its members raise money to purchase trophies for outstanding athletes on the girls' sports teams. This year the G.A.A. sold pins at all of the home football games.

The 1982-83 officers were: Becky Fisk, president; Sue Bliss, vice-president; Pam Puccio, secretary; Sharon LaCroix, treasurer. Mrs. Barbara Simms is advisor to the group.

This year for the first time senior athletes worked with physical education teachers in their gym classes. The group of seniors, called Physical Education Leaders, received credit for their work and physical education teachers benefited from their help.

HONOR SOCIETY: BRAINS, FUN, AND DEDICATION

Under the supervision of Mrs. Carol DuHamel, the North Attleboro Chapter of The National Honor Society had a busy and successful year. Society officers were: Eric Hjerpe, president; Maryann Bishop, vice-president; Pam Bathen, secretary; Katie Grenier, treasurer.

The group's activities in the fall included a car wash, a bake sale, and a Halloween visit to the pediatric ward at Sturdy Memorial Hospital. Costumed society members decorated faces, created pumpkin people and led the children in arts and crafts activities.

At Christmas time, the Honor Society had a clothing drive for the children at Wrentham State School.

In the spring, new inductees to the Honor Society were announced at the Awards Assembly. On May 4th, New members attended a breakfast at Colstone's for the NAHS and Feehan Honor Societies.

On May 11th, the new members were formally inducted into the Honor Society at the Annual Induction Banquet. At the banquet, honor society officers presented a flower arrangement to Mrs. Connor and an azalea bush to Mrs. DuHamel as expressions of appreciation for their hard work.

The newly inducted members of the Honor Society are: seniors, Dennis Collieran, Sheryl DeMarco, Sue Lake, Ed Mitchell, Ann-Marie Raymond, Kim Urquhart, Dan Connolly, David Johnson, Joanne Mann, Lynn Raposa, Janine Schoeppner, and Rebecca Fiske; juniors, Joanne Barry, Diane Cotter, Chester Dobro, Heidi Garito, Deborah Greene, Rochelle Hannon, Elizabeth Quackenbush, Sue Burns, Simone Cuoco, Elizabeth Dromsky, Deborah Gaudette, Kelly Hainey, Elizabeth McCann, and Jeffrey Shaw; sophomores, Lynn Alix, Kevin Beaulieu, Susan Joy, Michael Violet, Brendon Bannon, Doug Gonya, Kristie Raymond, and Camille Nelson.

Watch out Picasso

The Art Club officers, Tracy Botsford, president; Lee-Ann Childs, vice-president; Kacy Achin, secretary; and Ann Marie Bourgeois, treasurer; together with advisor, Miss Carolyn Wachta, planned a very busy year.

Club members worked hard on a number of bake sales to raise funds for the club's treasury. The most successful endeavor was the Halloween Bake Sale for which members decorated pumpkins and prepared baked goods.

The highlight of the year was the annual field trip to New York City on May 5th and 6th. The club's careful planning helped to make the trip a successful one. On the itinerary were stops at the Metropolitan Museum of Art to view the Vatican Exhibit, the Broadway show, "Who-Dun-It" and a tour of Lincoln Center.

It was a good year and the Art Club wishes every success to its graduates.

Council has busy year

The Student Council completed a very successful year under the direction of Mrs. Mary Clark. The officers were: Lenny Dieterle, president; Dave Patterson, vice-president; Laurie Soullier, secretary; Angie Colletto, corresponding secretary; Erik Everton, treasurer; and Steve Alix, sergeant-at-arms. Senior class members were Steve Onoyan, Maryann Bishop, and Lynda Twyman. The junior class was represented by Kris Brauner, Jim Johnson, and Frank Strachan. Jill Gaudette, Brian Lithway, and John Croteau represented the sophomore class. Early in October, the freshman class elected Kathy Brunell, Sue Ala, and Karen Smith to the Council.

The year began with the Council sponsoring freshman orientation and many Homecoming and Thanksgiving activities. During the Christmas season, a "Santa Fund" collection was taken and a food drive, "Food for Friends", was held. In January, a successful Father-Daughter Dance was held. Over one thousand carnations were sold for Valentine's Day. A blood bank was hosted on March 2nd. The Student Council also sponsored the St. Patrick's Day Dance and in April members acted as guides for junior high school students visiting NAHS. The idea of a Mother-Son Banquet was tested this year but due to a lack of interest, the banquet was cancelled.

When reviewing the service the Student Council provides, it becomes clear that it is one of North's most active organizations. Its advisor and current members are quite confident that it will continue to be active in serving the school.

Student intermediaries

The members of the 1982-83 Student Advisory Committee were Nancy Falocco, Amy Caldwell, Darlene Ashworth, Sue Bliss, and Kris Brauner. The members of SAC attend school committee meetings and act as intermediaries between the student body and the school committee.

This year the committee was successful in getting a coke machine for the girls' locker room. Profits from the machine will be used to set up a scholarship fund.

The spirit of Julius Caesar lives on

The North Attleboro Junior Classical League is a branch of the Massachusetts JCL which is part of the National JCL. Latin Club officers this year were: Pete Blitchington, president; Stephen Alix, vice-president; Beth Quackenbush, treasurer; Heather Cody, historian. Advisor Phyllis Thibault and the officers planned an interesting year.

In November a bake sale was held to raise funds for a trip to Classics Day at Brandeis University in March. At Classics Day club members did well in the academic contests. Todd Holmes and Mike Saulnier won first place for Latin III and Latin II.

The group also saw two movies, in October, "The Wanderings of Ulysses," and in February, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum."

The club participated in the National Latin Exam in March. Forty of our students won national prizes. The six top awards were received by Mike Saulnier, gold medal winner, Patty Meomartino, Lynne Alix, Tara Reece, Sakina Samma, and Laurie Chabot, silver medal winners.

For Christmas the club held their annual Saturnalia celebrations, a party in honor of the Ancient Roman holiday celebrated in December.

THE DRAMA CLUB SOARS TO NEW HEIGHTS WITH CAPTIVATING PERFORMANCES AND TALENTED PERFORMERS

The Drama Club began the year under the leadership of its president, Kurt Anderson. Debbie Flamand served as vice president, Jason Heywood as secretary, and Debby Mandell filled the office of treasurer for the second year in a row. Debbie Arabian was this year's scribe.

Under the direction of Miss Judith Cobb, the club staged the murder mystery, The Thirteenth Chair, with two performances on November 19 and 20, 1982. The cast included students, parents, and alumni. Among those participating were Doug Green, Pat Anderson and Brenda Mandell.

On February 5, 1983, three student directed one-act plays were performed. The first of the plays listed was also written by a NAHS student. The plays were entitled, When It Rains . . . directed by Frank Meekins and written by senior Ted Mitchell, The Golden Fleece directed by Kurt Anderson, and The Monkey's Paw, directed by Chester Dobro. When It Rains . . . received the award for the best play. Tim Mullen was named Best Actor for his performance in The Golden Fleece and Allison Gifford was named Best Actress for her role in When It Rains . . . Kurt Anderson, Deb Arabian and Ted Mitchell were also commended for their performances. Tracey Botsford was the first winner of a new award for the Best Technical worker.

On April 15 and 16, 1983, the Drama Club staged its spring musical production, Anything Goes. During the Friday evening performance Mr. Whitty was treated to a musical visit by Debbie Arabian as Reno Sweeney, the night-club evangelist.

In the spring many Drama Club members participated in a joint trip with the Art Club to New York City where they saw an off-Broadway production. Also, drama students attended plays throughout the year at the Trinity Square Theatre in Providence, Rhode Island.

On June 9, 1983, the members of the International Thespian Society held their annual banquet, induction and awards ceremony in the theatre. The new inductees were Tracey Botsford, Mike Edgar, Michelle Robidoux, Lee-Ann Childs, Cathy Parker, Chris Abells, Heidi Hill, Steve Fuller, Lauren Mandell and Beth Culp.

This year a parental support group, tentatively titled, The North Attleboro Theatrical Society, was formed. The organization will aide the club in raising funds and in the planning of activities.

ONCE AGAIN, THE NAHS ROCKETEERS SHOWED THE MANSFIELD HORNETS THAT "ROCKETOL IS DEADLY"

This year the Homecoming football game was held on November 6th. The North Attleboro Rocketeers faced the Mansfield Hornets.

The Homecoming queen and her court, announced at the spirit rally the day before, reigned over the event. The queen was Megan Schofield. Her court consisted of seniors Cheryl Briggs and Kerri LeBlanc, juniors Tracey Dean and Kacy Achin, sophomores Stephanie Arns and Jill Gaudette, freshmen Krissy Fowler and Kelly Magnan.

The parade before the game included float entries from each class. The theme of the seniors float was "Rocketol is Deadly!" It brought them third place. The juniors took top honors with their float, "Follow Your Dreams." "We're Pushing Through" was the freshmen theme. They took second place.

On the football field the Rocketeers added to the homecoming spirit by defeating Mansfield, 28 to 6. In the evening NAHS celebrated the victory with a Homecoming Dance featuring the band, Anthem.

WITH THE DELEGATES FROM NAHS ON THE SENATE FLOOR, THE U.S. HAS NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT!

On April 14 and 15, 1983, twelve NAHS students attended the Model Senate at Mansfield High School. The delegates sponsored several bills. Advisor Vincent Baldasaro remarked that this year's bills were some of the best ever.

Deb Mandell chaired the Environmental Committee. Brian Balut, Robin Lagasse, Dave Brunell and Cami Nelson all sponsored bills that were passed in committee.

On the second day of the Senate, Robyn Lagasse's bill on financial aid for draft registrants was debated on the floor. Unfortunately it failed to receive a majority. Other subjects debated included: storage of nuclear waste, social security, and national traffic regulations.

North delegates really outdid themselves this year. Almost every delegate spoke in front of the Senate. Mr. Baldasaro was very proud of his veteran seniors. He also said that the newcomers to the group did a super job and he hopes they will attend next year. All in all, the North delegation played a key role in the events at the Hockomock Model Senate.

MODEL UN DELEGATES DEBATE FOR CANADA

In December fifteen members of Mr. Baldasaro's International Relations class departed for the Boston Sheraton to participate in the annual Harvard Model United Nations.

North Attleboro represented the Canadian delegation this year. Some members of the delegation served on General Assembly committees, others on ECOSOC commissions. Most of the delegates worked hard and helped write several resolutions.

Debby Mandell received an Outstanding Delegate Award for her work on the Commission for Transnationals. This is the third award that North students have brought home over the years.

The delegates got little sleep but had a great deal of fun. They went to a Harvard sponsored dance, explored Boston, and made many new friends.

JUST WHAT HAPPENS IN A BLUE AND WHITE WINTER WONDERLAND?

On Saturday, January 22nd, the NAHS cafeteria was transformed into a blue and white winter wonderland for the ninth annual Father Daughter Dance.

The dance, sponsored by the student council, featured music by Russ Carlton. Before dinner the proud dads and their dates were photographed to provide a lasting memory of the evening.

Mothers Caterers supplied the food which included sandwiches, meatballs and spaghetti, chicken, salad, rolls and dessert.

Kris Brauner, Angie Colletto and Darlene Ashworth provided extra entertainment for guests with their special rendition of "Rockin Robin" and "A Teenager In Love".

Dads and daughters did plenty of dancing and the evening was great fun for all!

College Bowl undefeated

The College Bowl team had a very successful season this year with three wins and no losses. For the second year in a row, team members were selected by a trivia test administered in September to any interested student. This year's team consisted of senior Chuck Farrell, juniors Thom Freeman, Chuck McGill and Jeff Shaw. Seniors Steve Alix and Dave Brunell were chosen as alternates.

DECA: First hand experience

The Distributive Education Club at North High offers students the opportunity to get some first hand business experience. This year, under the direction of Advisor William Flannery, DECA students sold advertising contracts for the 1983 Northern Light, sponsored a car wash, sold calendars, helped out at the March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon and the North Attleboro Mini Walk. In addition DECA's members operate the school store, "Ralph's Corner."

Senior officers this year were: Brenda Trotter, president; Chris Johnson, vice-president; Debbie and Doreen Marcoux, secretaries; Janine Schoeppner, treasurer. Junior officers were: Dave Lanci, Lori Estrella, Glen Beyer, and Caroline Croke.

In the spring, DECA students participated in the District II Competition held in Sturbridge, Ma. Several NAHS students received recognition. Doreen Marcoux, Debbie Marcoux, and Bill Beckett came away with first place trophies while Brenda Trotter and Rick Walmsley took second and third place trophies, respectively.

Later in the year, Debbie Marcoux and Bill Beckett participated in the state-wide competition where they placed among the top six finalists.

Students are introduced to new careers

Ms. Cindy Marshall, a video artist who has won awards for her work, was selected by the Artists Foundation of Massachusetts as a video-artist-in-residence to work with public school students. Ms. Marshall worked on a joint grant basis in North Attleboro and in Attleboro. While here in the high school she helped a core group of our students produce a short documentary on high school students and employment. She directed both location taping and studio editing in the production of a 30 minute tape for public access on cable television.

In the spring, two engineers from New England Telephone Company spoke to math classes. Beth Carlson and Robyn Haas gave students a good insight into what an engineer does, the different kinds of engineers, what it takes to be an engineer, and, they were certainly proof that the field of engineering is open to women.

YEARBOOK STAFF RIDES THE TRAIN THROUGH NAHS

With the addition of a new advisor, Mrs. Jane Gallotta, and a new but experienced editorial staff, this year's yearbook became one of experimentation and new ideas. The editorial staff of six seniors and five juniors was organized by yearbook advisors and editor Robyn Lagasse.

After many Thursday afternoon meetings of tossing ideas around, the staff accomplished its most difficult task, that of developing a theme. Pieces, actually pages, soon began to fall into place with only one deadline missed. Development slowed down for a two week period in April, after a water leakage, combined with a lack of ventilation, created an odor that left the yearbook office uninhabitable. After a week of airing out during vacation, the office was again thoroughly utilized.

It was the hard work of the editorial staff and their staffs along with the guidance of Mrs. Giarrusso, Mrs.

Gallotta and Josten's Yearbook Representative Dan Smith that has made this book possible.

All but the Nobel Prize was awarded

The Awards Assembly took place on May 12th. Opening remarks were presented by Mr. Whitty and Honor Society President Eric Hjerpe. Students were given awards for excellence in a variety of subjects and fields. Humanities awards were presented by Dr. Olivier, theatre arts awards by Miss Cobb, music awards by Mr. Bunten, Latin awards by Mrs. Thibault, business and occupational education awards by Mr. Slowe, and distributive education awards by Mr. Flannery. Mr. Slowe also presented the math-science awards.

Brian Balut was named valedictorian while Debby Marcoux was named salutatorian for the Class of 1983. Jeff Shaw received the Brown Book Award and Kathy Schaeberle was awarded the Rensselaer Medal for math and science. The D.A.R. Good Citizen Award was presented to Army Brunelle. Erik Everton received appointments to West Point, Annapolis, and the Coast Guard Academy. The Formal Debate Award went to Debby Mandell. Class presidents read the names of the students who achieved highest honors for at least one term. Also mentioned were the commended students of the 1983 National Merit Scholarship program as well as the new members of the Honor Society.

TALENT SHOW . . . LIGHTS . . . ACTION . . .

The 1983 Junior Talent Show, co-directed by Miss Cooke and G. Frank Meekins, was held on Friday, the 13th of May. Spectators filled the auditorium to view the sold-out performance. Emcees, Lee-Ann Childs and Kevin Tremblay entertained the audience between acts.

An array of talent was exhibited in the show. "Stonehenge", NAHS's own rock band, opened and closed the show with their sensational songs. "Adventure" also made an appearance that evening as well as "Def Leppard."

Mr. Bunten directed a jazz rock ensemble featuring our own stage band. Sandy Strezsak and Joanne Mann once again performed dazzling dances. Also dancing the night away were Tracey LeBeau and Natalie Pupa, Debbie Flaman and Pauline Carlson. Several members of the junior class, holding buckets in their hands, danced to "Raining Men."

Many students sang solos in the Talent Show. The soloists included: Debbie Arabian, Lori Hustler, Steven Fuller, Debbie Flaman, and Pam Alix. All were accompanied by G. Frank Meekins on the piano. Drama and music students sang "Walk Tall" in thanks to Miss Cobb and Mr. Bunten for all they've done.

One skit that had the audience in hysterics was "Calendar Girls," performed by fourteen girls from the junior class. The Junior Jet Powderpuff Cheerleaders made an appearance as they gracefully twirled to "The Flan-cracker Suite." A big hit of the show was seeing several junior boys do their version of a Pepsi-Light commercial. Other commercials performed were: Snuggies, Oscar Mayer Bologna, and Flab. The show ended with the ever-popular Lawrence Welk theme song—bubbles and all.

SPORTS

Another victorious season

Again this year, North destroyed the competition under the coaching efforts of Ray Beaupre. The team finished the season with an impressive nine wins and one loss record, placing them second in the Hockomock League. The highlight of the season was the annual Thanksgiving Day Game, in which North gave Attleboro a 13-7 defeat.

Not only was the team honored for outstanding play, but individual members were awarded for personal excellence. All-Hockomock honors were awarded to Ted Barrett, Steve Onoyan, Dave Patterson, Dan Connolly, and Kevin Griswold. Ted and Steve were given the distinguished titles of All-Hockomock Captains. The Sun-Chronicle named six North players to their All-Star Team. They are Dan Connolly, Jim Johnson, Steve Onoyan, Dave Patterson, Ray Marceau, and Ted Barrett. Ted was also named to The Boston Globe All-Scholastic Football Team and was honored as a Player of the Year. At the Thanksgiving Day game, he was awarded the Balfour Trophy for excellence in offense.

North's coach, Ray Beaupre, was also honored as a Boston Globe Coach of the Year.

The Junior Varsity team had an excellent season with a seven win, two loss, and one tie record. The Freshman team was spirited, but suffered defeat with a record of no wins, nine losses, and one tie.

One point away from perfection

According to Coach Charlie Ayotte, illness and one point prevented the Girls' Cross Country team from attaining an undefeated season.

Led by captain Maryellen Hanley, the girls finished third in dual meet competition with a 4-2 record. First year runner Kelly Hainey and veteran junior Andrea Pettengill were both elected to the Hockomock All Star team.

The 1982 Boys' Cross Country team enjoyed its most successful season in the past eleven years under Coach Ayotte. With a dual meet record of 8-0, the team also added the Hockomock League Championship trophy to its unbeaten string of 9-0.

Senior captain Steve Schaeberle, senior Marc Werner, and junior Dave Larson, who was elected to the Hockomock All Star team, formed the nucleus of the team.

Two wins highlight field hockey season

This year Coach Marcia Connors was faced with a young Field Hockey team. The squad's spirit and competitiveness served as a foundation for Coach Connors to build upon.

Senior co-captains Shelley Goyette and Lori Mello led the team to a final record of two wins, eleven losses and three ties. Juniors Laura Brunell, Margaret Connolly, Jean Doran and freshman Marcy Falcone were all key competitors.

Sun-Chronicle All-Star Honorable Mentions were awarded to Margaret Connolly and Jean Doran. The GAA gave a most contributing player award to Margaret Connolly and named Lisa Jeppe, of the Junior Varsity team, most improved player.

North plays well under the lights

The Soccer team proved to be a threat in the Hockomock League this year. Franklin and Foxboro, past State Tournament teams, discovered that North had both the ability and the desire to be highly competitive.

Captains Brian Balut and Jim Fong, along with seniors Ken Hervieux, Chris Travers, Tony Lanci, Barry Estrella and Art Miller, served as the nucleus for this year's team. Brian Balut was awarded All-Hockomock honors, while both he and Matt Albertini were elected members of the Pawtucket Times All-Star team for their performances this year.

North's most memorable games this season had one common element; they were all played at night. Of their three home night games, the team won two, defeating King Philip and Oliver Ames, and tied one against Sharon. With this record, as compared to their three win, nine loss, two tie overall record, Coach Mike Suffoletto hopes to establish a "new look" in next year's team. By emphasizing ball control, field tactics, and teamwork, he feels that the State Tournament will be a reasonable goal.

Golf returns to North

Because of cutbacks in school spending in the 1981-82 school year, various sports, such as golf, had to be cut. However thanks to the fund-raising efforts of John Delbonis, Sr. and the rest of the NAHS Golf Boosters Club, enough money was raised to finance a 1982 fall Golf team. It proved to be well worth the effort. The North team was the surprise of the Hockomock League as they clinched third place and missed qualifying for the state tournament by one match.

Junior John Delbonis led the team with eleven medalist rounds in sixteen matches. He was also elected to the All Sun-Chronicle Golf team.

Basketball ends with respectable seasons

The 1982-83 Girls' Basketball team had a respectable season. Early the team showed some inexperience but as the year progressed so did the team's play. They finished with a 5-14 record.

Margaret Connolly, a junior, was the second leading scorer in the Hockomock League with an average of 15 points per game. Senior Lori Laderoute led the league in rebounds with 14 per game. Both girls participated in the league all-star game. Margaret was named to The Sun-Chronicle, Hockomock League, and Pawtucket Times All-Star teams. In addition, she was named the most valuable player of her team. Captain Lori Laderoute received the most contributing award from her teammates.

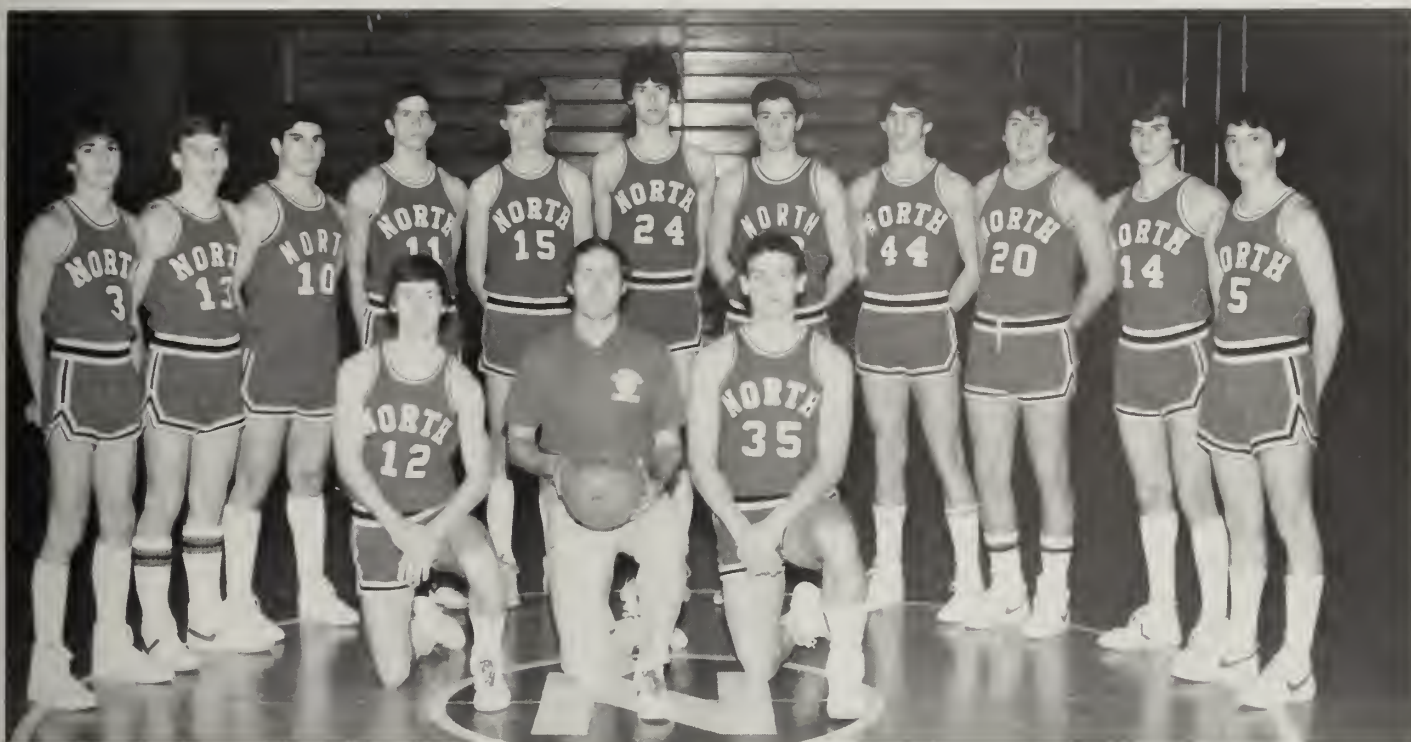

In spite of the loss of three seniors, Lori Laderoute, Kris Delfino, and Marie Schilling, next year's team will have a number of experienced players returning. The future looks bright!

This year the Varsity Basketball team was once again a team of surprises. Although they ended the season with an 8 win, 12 loss record, it was quite an improvement over last year.

The Rocketeers advanced to the championship game of the annual Holiday Tournament only to lose to Sharon. For his efforts, Jim Johnson was named to the Tournament All Star Team.

As the season progressed North showed their potential by defeating all of the Hockomock leaders at least once, including a romp over eventual league champion, Oliver Ames.

Led by the hustle and leadership of Captain Gary Horton and the inside play of Captain Len Dieterle, the Rocketeers gave the fans some exciting moments. Both Dieterle and junior Todd Croteau were named to the Sun Chronicle All Star Team. In his first full varsity season, Croteau finished as the seventh leading scorer in the area. Dieterle was named to the Hockomock League All Star Team also.

Hockey posts best season ever

With a total of nine seniors, the North Attleboro Varsity Hockey team completed its best season ever with a final record of six wins, ten losses, and three ties. Five of these ten losses, however, were by one goal, proving the true competitiveness of this year's team.

Much of the team's success this season is credited to the B-line. This line, composed of seniors Kris Bainton, Brian Balut, and Army Brunelle combined for fifty-four goals and forty-seven assists, for a total of one hundred and one points, a North Attleboro High School record.

The power of this line was most evident in their first game against Canton; a game the team will never forget. By the end of the first period, the B-line had combined to score five goals, giving them a three goal lead over the frequent Hockomock League champions. The game ended in a 5-5 tie.

Young blood dominates gymnastic team

This year's Gymnastic team, captained by Laura Pearce and Kerri LeBlanc, completed a respectable season with a record of 4 wins and 6 losses. The team was dominated by a group of talented freshmen who contributed tremendously to the team.

The high point of the season was the All Hockomock League Individuals Meet. Every Rocketeer who participated in the meet placed in an event. Laura Pearce and Sherry Gordon both placed fifth on the floor exercise. Kerri LeBlanc and Maureen Bucklin placed 4th and 5th, respectively, on the uneven parallel bars. Bonnie Wheeler placed 4th on the balance beam and Cathy Clinton placed 6th. Cheryl Briggs and Beth McCann placed 5th and 3rd on the vault. Melissa Golembewski placed 6th on floor exercise and 6th in the all-round competition. Melissa was also a member of the Evening-Times All-Star team. She contributed a total of 253.2 points to the team. Beth McCann received honorable mention on the all-star team and was voted most contributing.

Baseball finishes with record season

The Baseball team had its best finish in 13 years with a 13 win and 7 loss record. Captains Erik Everton and Bob Iaconis, along with nine other seniors, led the team to third place in the Hockomock League. The team's chance of drawing a state tournament birth seemed certain at the end of the first half with an eight win and two loss record. The team had to settle with a .500 record in the second half of the season, however, leaving them one game short of the tournament.

This year's team had four All-Stars. They were Erik Everton, Steve Onoyan, Dan Connolly and Army Brunelle. Everton and Connolly received All-League honors.

Coach Harris is confident that next year's team will have another good season.

Softball - almost, but not quite

Once again Coach Joanne Sizemore led the NAHS Softball team to a fairly good season of 10 wins and 7 losses. The 1983 captains were Karen McGee and Lori Mello. The team successfully defeated some of the top teams in the Hockomock League and also had the chance to be in first place for a while. Cheryl Grant was selected the most valuable player by her teammates while Lori Mello was voted the most contributing. Jean Doran received the award for having the highest batting average on the team. Cheryl Grant, Margaret Connolly, Karen McGee, and Jean Doran were chosen to play in the All-Star game held in Franklin. One loss scars track season

Led by captains Maryellen Hanley, Laura Pearce, and Cheryl Briggs, the Girls' Track team completed their season with a 6-1-1 record. The tie occurred at Canton with the girls losing the Hockomock Championship on a technicality.

Determined to show the Hockomock League the strength of their team, Coach Steve Robertson and Assistant Coach Dwight Estey rallied the girls to win their third consecutive Hockomock League Meet Championship. Athletes from North, recognized for their first places, received Hockomock League All Star awards. Hundred meter and yard dash record holder Melody Johnson won Hockomock League All Star for her first place in the 100 meter, junior teammate Andrea Pettengill for the two mile, and senior record holder Sue Bliss in the hurdles. Lori Laderoute was awarded alternate in the high jump. Demonstrating a strong team effort, the girls also tied Mansfield for their third consecutive win of the Val Muscato Relays.

Coach Robertson lauded the team on the amount of letters earned and the hard work put in by every member. Working overtime, Melody Johnson excelled to win fourth place in the 100 meter as the first North High entry into the New England Track Meet.

With the talents of the freshman class, who won the Freshman Meet, and the sophomores and juniors who won the Junior Varsity Meet, the team confidently looks ahead to another successful season.

The Boys' Track team finished the season with an excellent record of seven wins and one loss. Led by team captains, Steve Schaeberle, Ted Barrett, and Lenny Dieterle, the team suffered its only loss to Foxboro.

Although track is a team event, there are usually some athletes whose performances stand out. Seniors Ted Barrett and Steve Schaeberle were undefeated in dual meets. The underclassmen were well represented by Dave Larson in the mile, Kevin Trembly in the high jump and triple jump, and Greg McKinnon in the two mile.

The team certainly lived up to the reputation of excellence in North Attleboro track. With many talented underclassmen returning Coach Robert Aussant looks forward to a fine team next year as well.

Tennis returns again

For the first time in three years, the boys' tennis team had a winning season. The team finished with an overall record of 9-8 and a record of 8-8 in the Hockomock League. Coach John Wood was very pleased with this year's performance. For him the 4-1 victory over Mansfield near the end of the season was the highlight of the year.

Broken state record highlights year!

This year the football, basketball and soccer cheerleading squads pushed to the limit in cheering their teams on. Starting early in the summer heat and right up to the end of the competition season in April, they worked to boost NAHS pride and spirit. At every game, win or loose, the cheerleaders supported our athletes. The soccer squad was led by Terri Pasquantonio. Megan Schofield led the football and basketball squads.

For guidance the football and basketball cheering squads looked to Mrs. Battista and the soccer squad to Mrs. Bliss. In appreciation of the quality of time devoted to the cheerleaders, the cheerleading competition hosted by NAHS was dedicated to Mrs. Battista.

To raise funds the cheerleaders sold sweatshirts, sponsored dances, and held a car wash. The funds were used to send football cheerleaders to a cheering camp at Brown University and the soccer squad to a camp sponsored by SMU.

The competition squad consists of girls from all three squads. It was captained by Megan Schofield. The competition squad broke a state record this year by earning first place in each of the six competitions in which it competed.

A good sportsmanship award at the St. James competition and an award for excellence in jumps, stunts, and extras, reflected the hard work, spirit and teamwork of the squad. For their excellence and accomplishment the NAHS cheerleaders were give a commendation by the North Attleboro Board of Selectmen. It was a fitting end to a spirited year!

Jets victorious in a close match

This year's Powderpuff Game was a close match. In spite of a touchdown scored by Senior Shark, Pam Silvestri, the Junior Jets won the game, 14-6.

Scoring drives by Sue Burns and Holly Dugas helped bring the Jets their victory. However, senior stars Kris Delfino and Megan Schofield, and co-captains, Cheryl Briggs and Rose Clancy kept the Sharks within striking range, so the game was interesting to the last moment.

Senior athletes honored for participation

The senior athletes of North Attleboro High School were honored at the sixty-second annual Fisher-Kelley Banquet on May 24, 1983. Parents, administrators, coaches, faculty members, and special guests gathered at the Elks' Lodge for dinner and the presentation of plaques and awards to deserving athletes. The most distinguished award, the Dr. Maurice L. Grant Award, presented to an athlete of high scholastic achievement, was presented to Steve Onoyan. Mr. Pat Fitzgibbons, guest speaker and past student athlete of North High, joined with the other adults in congratulating the seniors for their participation in the athletic program.

Four Unforgettable Years Remembered

It's time to reflect back on four unforgettable years at North High. There are many good times and some bad times to remember but as the years pass only the good memories will remain.

We entered the high school in the fall of 1979. Our first few days were hectic. We were scared and excited about fitting in with the routine. The seniors tried to drive us crazy. They liked seeing our amazed expressions when they told us that the bio room was across from the pool. As itty-bitty freshmen, we never thought we'd make it to senior year.

As the days wore on we settled in quite nicely. We elected officers for the school year. Leslie Paquin was elected class president; Megan Schofield, vice-president; Cheryl Briggs, secretary; Maryann Bishop, treasurer. Lenny Dieterle, Dave Patterson and Steve Onoyan were our student council members.

Homecoming was soon upon us. We placed second in the float competition with our "camera". Elected to ride on the float were Megan Schofield and Kara Scarlatelli.

In our freshmen year there weren't many class fund raisers. We hosted a dance, had a bake sale and sold pens. Mrs. Sandra Dennis gave her time willingly as our class advisor. The year flew by and suddenly we were no longer the babes of the school.

As "silly silly" sophomores two of our class officers remained the same, Leslie Paquin was still our president and Megan Schofield was still our vice-president. We elected Peggy Achin secretary and Mark Farnell treasurer. Lenny Dieterle, Dave Patterson, and Jill Danko were elected to the student council.

Our class spirit was at its peak this year. We placed first in the spirit contest during the Homecoming Rally. Many people gave time and energy to make our float a success.

president; Peggy Achin, secretary; Katrina Achin, treasurer.

Mrs. Jean Armstrong joined Mrs. Dennis as our class advisor. They helped organize some major fundraisers. We sold magazines and earned about $1,000. We sponsored a Valentine Dance and organized the freshman-sophomore social.

Sophomore year was soon over and we realized we were halfway through our years at North High.

We saw a lot of changes during our junior year. Army Brunelle became our new president. Megan Schofield was elected vice-president, Peggy Achin secretary, and Katrina Achin treasurer. Junior year student council offices were given to Lenny Dieterle, sergeant-at-arms, and Dave Patterson, corresponding secretary. Representatives were Steve Alix, Laurie Soullier and Erik Everton. Major changes included a new principal, Mr. Whitty and a new advisor. Mrs. Armstrong was aided by Mrs. Carolyn Russell.

We held a dance on October 24. Funny how that date sticks in mind. A little bit of advice to underclassmen: don't try to sell pizza at a high school dance.

We participated in the annual Powder-puff game on December 4th. We gave it everything we had, only to be defeated by the Senior Sharks.

Our Homecoming float featured a clock saying, "Attleboro takes a licking while North keeps on ticking!" We received second place for that creation. Megan Schofield and Cheryl Briggs were elected to ride on the float.

Throughout the year we raised money for our most important event, the Junior Prom. The prom was held on April 22nd at the Venus DeMilo. "Open Arms" was our theme song and it was played by the band UVL. Megan Schofield was crowned queen with Lynn Fontaine, Jodie Meyer, Kara Scarlatelli, Pam Reynolds, Kerri LeBlanc, and Cheryl Briggs as her court. It was a memorable night for all who attended.

Our next fundraiser was the "Junior Talent Show." We had fun with this one. Julie Curtis and Bill Firth were the emcees for this dazzling extravaganza.

June arrived and the seniors left. Suddenly we were seniors! Three years had flown by.

Senior year was a busy time for all of us. We were applying to colleges, looking for jobs, and thinking about our future. Each day brought the class closer together.

Our class officers remained the same. Army Brunelle, president; Megan Schofield, vice-president; Peggy Achin, secretary; and Katrina Achin, treasurer. Lenny Dieterle became the new student council president, Dave Patterson, vice-president; Laurie Soullier, secretary; Steve Alix, sergeant-at-arms; Erik Everton, treasurer. Our representatives were Steve Onoyan, Lynda Twyman and Maryann Bishop. Mr. David Vito, Mrs. Mary Clark and Mrs. Helen Mullen joined us as our advisors for a fun-filled year.

For our first fundraiser we sold candy and North painters hats at football games. Powderpuff was next. We figured we'd slaughter the Jets after a year of experience; we figured wrong. The Senior Sharks sorrowfully broke tradition and lost to the Junior Jets.

Homecoming arrived and we placed third with our "Tylenol" float. Megan Schofield was our homecoming queen and senior court members were Kerri LeBlanc and Cheryl Briggs.

We continued raising funds for the prom by selling painters hats at basketball games. On February 24th, we held our Senior Prom at the Providence Marriot. UVL was the band and the theme song was "We've Got Tonight". Megan Schofield was crowned queen and her court members were Kara Scarlatelli, Cheryl Briggs, Jodie Meyer, Lynn Fontaine, Laurie Soullier, Katrina Achin, and Kerri LeBlanc.

We held a flea market as our final fundraiser. Along with the flea market we had a concession stand, a washed out car wash and yes, you're right, once again we sold NA painters hats. If anyone is still interested in a hat, it's not too late.

Four years at NAHS flew by. They were great and will always be remembered by the Class of 1983. Special thanks to Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. Russell, Mr. Vito, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Mullen, Mr. Whitty, Mr. Kelly, Mr. Pickering, Mrs. Connor, Ms. Cooke and all our parents for making our four years here a success.

Tomorrow's Achievements are Just a Dream Away.

"We've Got Tonight . . ."

On February 24th, the Class of 1983 held its Senior Prom at the Marriott Inn, Providence, R.I. Music was provided by UVL and the theme for the evening was taken from Bob Seger's "We've Got Tonight."

Following a reception and photographs, the couples and their dates enjoyed a full dinner including soup, salad, prime rib or chicken, and finally dessert.

After dinner the queen and her court were named. Megan Schofield was crowned queen. Her court included Katrina Achin, Cheryl Briggs, Lynn Fontaine, Kerri LeBlanc, Jodi Meyer, Kara Scarlatelli, Laurie Soullier.

The queen, her court and their escorts began the evening of dancing. Other couples soon crowded the floor.

"We've got tonight who needs tomorrow? We've got tonight, Babe, why don't you stay?"

Top right: The queen and her court: Kerri LeBlanc, Jodi Meyer, Kara Scarlatelli, Queen Megan Schofield, Cheryl Briggs, Laurie Soullier, Katrina Achin, and Lynn Fontaine.

 she had a good time?"

Pizza, softball, and fun

On June 2, 1983, members of the senior class gathered for the pizza party and softball game. In preparation for the big game the seniors ate forty-five pizzas and drank several cases of soda. With the priority of eating out of the way, captains Jodie Meyer and Dave Patterson warmed up their teams. Afraid of being trounced, the fearful faculty remained small in number and was represented by Mr. Whitty, Mr. Arnold, and Mr. Estey. Mr. Whitty pitched and assumed the role of umpire "trying" not to favor his own team. Mr. Whitty and Mr. Arnold were chosen on Jodie's team and Mr. Estey joined Dave's. The aid of a homerun by Mr. Estey with bases loaded helped Dave's team to win. After the game everyone agreed they had a good time.

Below: Lenny Dieterle, "I don't enjoy people taking pictures of me while I am eating."

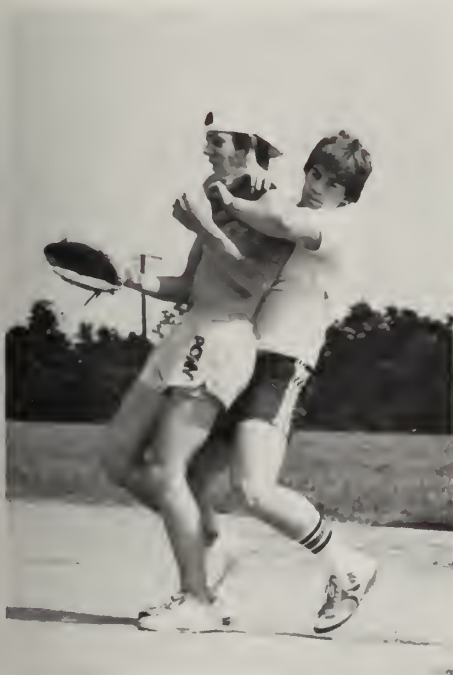

Below right: Julie Curtis, "Should I take a chance and finish this piece?"

Bottom left: Dave Patterson, "How many pieces did you say you had?"

Bottom middle: Lori Laderoute and Frank Mee-kins, "I hope she doesn't take both pieces."

Top middle: Dave Patterson and Kara Scarlattelli, "I can't believe I made it this far!"
Above: Bill Beckett, "Do you want to see my my best pitch?"
Left: Greg LeBlanc and Lori Mello, "Please drop the ball."

Class Day-honors and talent

On Friday, June 3, 1983, Class Day was held in the high school gymnasium. In the morning, Informal Class Day was presented for the entire student body. Senior superlatives were recognized and the class history and class will were read. In addition, a slide show was presented highlighting our four years at NAHS.

In the afternoon, Formal Class Day was held for parents, relatives, and friends. Essays were read by Dave Brunell, Maryann Bishop, and Deb Flamand. The dedication of the Northern Light was announced by yearbook editor Robyn Lagasse, and a vocal selection was sung by selected seniors. The class ode, composed by Frank Meekins and Allison Gifford, and sung by Allison, was heard for the first time. The Merle Crockett Award for the outstanding senior student was presented to Army Brunelle. Following Class Day activities a reception was held in the cafeteria.

Top right: Katrina Achin, Megan Schofield, Peggy Achin, and Army Brunelle, "The advantage of being class officer is that you get to be first in line."

Right: Katrina Achin, "I hope it works this time."
Far right: Patty Noviello and Chris Nolan, "We can't say this to the whole assembly."

Below: Erik Everton and West Point Representative, "Congratulations, soon you will be replacing me."

Bottom right: Pam Silvestri and Larry Silvestri, "Why did they spell your name right and mine wrong?"

Top left: Lenny Dieterle, Erik Everton, Peggy Achin, and Megan Schofield, "I wonder how much longer we will be standing?"

Far left: Sue Bliss and Dave Brunell, "I looked like that four years ago?"

Left: Peggy Achin and Army Brunelle, "Do you think Mr. Whitty will like the change in program?"

Goodbyes are shared

On June 1, 1983, the annual Senior Supper and Reception sponsored by the Alumni Association was held at the King Philip Ballroom. Following dinner seniors formed a receiving line and then marched through the ballroom. During the evening parents, faculty, and friends had an opportunity to congratulate and bid the seniors goodbye.

Right: Bridget Forbes, Shelly Goyette, Colleen Collins, Becky Fisk, Mr. Pickering and Mr. Whitty, "We thought we'd never see this day!"
Bottom right: Frank Meekins and Mrs. Connor, "Frank, you're stepping on my toes."

Top left: Mrs. Young and Jim Ahlquist, "Do you think she will go out with me this weekend?"

Top right: Deb Wills, Pam Puccio, Pam Silvestri, Larry Silvestri, and Pam Reid, "They will really be suprised when they get to our line."

Above: Steve Schaeberle and Eric Hjerpe, "I wonder how many hands we will shake tonight?"

Graduation 1983 onward and upward!

On Sunday, June 5th, even though the sun was shining, a wet field from the previous day's rain forced commencement exercises for the Class of 1983 into the high school gymnasium. Speeches were heard from Valedictorian Brian Balut, entitled "Do It Right the First Time", and Salutatorian Deb Marcoux entitled, "On to New Horizons". The main speaker, Francis Leary, Chairman of the School Committee, delivered a dynamic speech to the graduates.

The high point of the day was the presentation of diplomas. Then, before a total of 70,000 dollars of scholarship money was awarded to deserving graduates, Mr. Whitty announced that 68% of the graduates were continuing their education in some form, the largest amount in the history of North Attleboro High School. Four years of hard work had come to an end, but many more were just beginning.
